In Tribute to Father Sean Hagerty, SJ,
"Son of Holy Trinity"

Two weeks ago, Monsignor Sandi received a very kind acknowledgement from the USA East Province of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) for the generous donation he sent in the name of all Holy Trinity parishioners. This was done in tribute to the "home-grown" priest, Father Sean Hagerty, who was ordained on June 11th.

Now that he has been appointed as Assistant Director of Vocations and Promoter for the Jesuit USA East Province on East 83rd Street, WE HOPE HOLY TRINITY PARISH WILL OCCASIONALLY BENEFIT FROM FATHER HAGERTY'S SUNDAY PRESENCE. God bless the Jesuit Fathers' untiring pursuit of ministry for the Greater Glory of God!

A Prayer for Our Nation

"O Lord, today I echo the prayer of King David, 'O Lord hear my plea for justice. Listen to my cry for help' (Ps. 17:1). Pour out justice on the United States. Strengthen what is good and challenging. Fix what is weak and broken. Restore what has been stripped away through ignorance and pride. Finally, show me the part I can make in your ongoing work of reconciliation and sacrificial love-right here, right now! Through Christ, our Lord. Amen!"

❖ Liberty Does Not Come Cheap ❖

We know, of course, that the Fourth of July is more than hot dogs and fireworks. Yet it is easy to overlook the passion and belief that brought it to be, or, worse, these many generations later, to blithely dismiss the cost.

“Have you ever wondered what happened to the 56 men who signed the Declaration of Independence? Five were captured by the British as traitors and tortured before they died. Twelve had their homes ransacked and burned. Two lost sons who served in the Revolutionary Army. Another two had sons captured. Nine of the 56 fought and died from wounds or hardships of the war. They pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor.

What kind of men were they? Twenty-four were lawyers and jurists. Eleven were merchants. Nine were farmers and plantations owners. All were men of means and well-educated, but they signed the Declaration of Independence, knowing that the penalty would be death if they were captured.

Carter Braxton of Virginia, a wealthy planter and trader, saw his ships swept from the seas by the British navy. He sold his home and properties to pay debts, and died in rags. Thomas McKean was so hounded by the British that he was forced to move his family constantly. He served in the Congress without pay, and his family was kept in hiding. His possessions were taken, and poverty was his reward. Vandals or soldiers looted the property of Ellery, Hall, Clyner, Walton, Gwinnet, Heyward, Rutledge and Middleton. At the Battle of Yorktown, Thomas Nelson, Jr. noted that the British General Cornwallis had taken over the Nelson home for his headquarters. He quietly urged General Washington to open fire. The home was destroyed, and Nelson died bankrupt. Francis Lewis' home was destroyed. The enemy jailed his wife, and she died within a few months. John Hart was driven from the bedside of his dying wife. Their 13 children fled for their lives. His fields and gristmill were laid to waste. For more than a year, he lived in forests and caves, returning to find his wife dead and his children gone. He died shortly thereafter, heartbroken. Morris and Livingston suffered similar fates

Such were the stories and sacrifices of the American Revolution. These were not wild-eyed, rabble-rousing ruffians. They were soft-spoken men of means and education. They had security, but they valued liberty more. Standing tall, straight and unwavering, they pledged 'for the support of this Declaration, with a firm Reliance on the Protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.'”

“Freedom is not only a gift, but also a summons to personal responsibility ... The preservation of freedom calls for the cultivation of virtue, self-discipline, sacrifice for the common good and a sense of responsibility towards the less fortunate. It also demands the courage to engage in civic life and to bring one's deepest beliefs and values to reasoned public debate. In a word, freedom is ever new.”

– Benedict XVI, Whitehouse Address, April 2008

“Padre, Señor de cielo y tierra”

...Esta es la paradoja del ser humano: inventa cosas para vivir mejor, pero no consigue ser feliz. Sabemos mucho sobre las cosas que nos rodean y muy poco sobre nosotros mismos y de los caminos de la felicidad que en Dios encontramos. Las enseñanzas de Jesús fueron rechazadas por los doctores de la ley y fueron reveladas a todos los que lo recibieron con sencillez, como niños. En el evangelio vemos la alabanza que Jesús eleva al Padre. ¿Qué es alabar a Dios? Es reconocer lo que Él hace en mí. Saber a ciencia cierta que lo que Él hace en mi vida es el mejor remedio para el desfallecimiento de nuestros corazones.

En la sociedad actual tan estructurada y organizada, sabemos acudir al sitio preciso ante la problemática adecuada. La falta de evangelización de muchas personas hace que muchos no acudan al Señor que da la paz interior. Todos tenemos que saber acudir al Maestro y al Médico de nuestra vida. Lo que ocurre con bastante frecuencia, es que incluso los creyentes no terminan de estar convencidos que Dios actúa en sus vidas y en sus acciones; que Dios es capaz de rehacer su creación perfeccionando lo que nosotros con nuestros pecados hemos deformado. Al comienzo de este evangelio Jesús nos da la clave de este texto: Jesús nombra a Dios Padre y Señor del cielo y de la tierra. ¿Reconoces al Padre como el Señor de tu vida? . Los humanos divinizamos con mucha facilidad a personas, a nuevas ideologías, etc. pero uno sólo es el Señor que puede llenar nuestros corazones. ¿A quiénes has divinizado en tu vida? ¿Quién te ha robado el corazón?

El motivo por el que alaba a Dios Padre es: Porque ocultaste estas cosas a los sabios y entendidos, y las revelaste a los sencillos. Las cosas son el mensaje del reino de Dios. ¿Sabes acoger el mensaje de salvación con sencillez? Una persona puede ser un intelectual en las cosas del mundo y, sin embargo, ser un perfecto ignorante, indiferente y equivocado sobre los misterios de Dios.
