A Prayer for Life

"Father and maker of everything and everyone, You adorn creation with splendor and beauty, and fashion human lives in Your image and likeness. Awaken in every heart a reverence for the work of Your hands and renew among Your People a readiness to nurture and sustain Your precious gift of life … in all its forms. Grant this through our Lord Jesus, your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen."

+ A Reflection +

IS CHRIST DIVIDED?

"As a society, we are not a patient people. We expect solutions to be immediate, our prayers addressed promptly. In the Responsorial Psalm, we hear that while we are impatient, God is steadfast. He is always there as our place of refuge. We can creatively relate to God by taking time to gaze on the Lord's beauty. In our times of trouble, we are called to be patient, courageous, and stouthearted.

In the Second Reading, Paul is writing to a community divided by jealousies and petty concerns. Paul reminds them all that Christians are not baptized into one another, but baptized into Jesus Christ. The source of all unity is Christ, who died for us all, and who calls us all to sacrifice ourselves for one another." – At Home with the Word

Se estableció en Cafarnaúm

- Convertirse es cambiar de mentalidad para adquirir los criterios de Dios. Pero no todo el mundo está dispuesto a realizar este cambio. Muchas veces por miedo o por comodidad las personas prefieren mantenerse en sus dolores que ir a sus esperanzas. Prefieren el sufrimiento al enfrentamiento consigo mismo.

- El Señor no nos enfrenta con los demás, ni tan siquiera con nuestros enemigos. Hace algo mucho más duro: nos enfrenta contra nosotros mismos y nuestro mundo interior.

- Cuando Cristo comenzó a predicar, comenzó también a reunir discípulos, para que fuesen oyentes antes que predicadores. Los discípulos le siguen porque se fían de su palabra, antes incluso de ver sus milagros. La vida cristiana no se basa en el ver milagros sino en confiar plenamente en Aquel que puede hacerlos.

- Termina el Evangelio de hoy con la curación de enfermos. Siempre encontramos emparejadas el predicar el Evangelio y el curar a los enfermos. Una señal bien clara que la curación que Jesús realiza en las personas no es solamente la física sino también la espiritual. Todos estamos llamados a la sanación integral de nuestra vida. Todos estamos llamados a la conversión.
