Chapter 28—Spontaneous Prayer

There are hundreds of these first Christian prayers as you make your way through the Gospels. The leper said to Jesus, "Lord, if you choose, you can make me clean (Mt 8:2). The centurion asked Jesus to cure his servant: "Lord, I am not worthy that you enter under my roof, but only say the word and my servant will be healed" (Mt 8:8). During a storm out on a boat the disciples turned to Jesus and said, "Lord save us! We are perishing" (Mt 8:25).

In the prelude to the feeding of the five thousand, the disciples said to Jesus, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish". How often we come to Jesus in the same way, having so very little to offer to a situation. But just as Jesus said to the disciples, he says to us, "Bring me what you have" (Mt 14:17). Jesus can work miracles with the little we have, if we bring it to him.

Many of these first prayers directed at Jesus were dripping with humanity. A perfect example is Martha complaining to Jesus, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself?" (Lk 10:40). Do you complain to God?

Even Jesus' mother contributes to the litany of first Christian prayers. These are the only recorded words we have of Mary speaking to Jesus: "They have no wine" (Jn 2:3). The way she spoke to Jesus is different from the way everyone else spoke to him. Her words are casual, practical, matter-of-fact, and they declare a familiarity that others did not have with Jesus.

Throughout the Gospels we also encounter phenomenal displays of faith, in many cases from the people we would least expect them from. Who can forget the Canaanite woman who came to Jesus seeking healing for her daughter and got into a back-and-forth banter with the Son of God? Finally, she won Jesus over with the line, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from the master's table" (Mt 17:4). Hers was a bold and beautiful faith.

There are the unforgettable moments, such as when the thief turned to Jesus and said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom" (Lk 23:42). Do you think much about Jesus' kingdom? Is it part of your reality? Or has your view of reality shrunk to exclude it?

Of course, not every word spoken to Christ was respected and reverent. But we can learn from every single word that was uttered by any person in the Gospels.

Throughout the Gospels people call out to Jesus in a variety of way, and each is a prayer of one sort or another. There are hundreds of these first Christian prayers. As you read the Gospels, take note of them. Pause to consider each. Ask yourself: Have I ever spoken to Jesus like this? Have I ever prayed like this?

Learn to call out to God in the moments of your day, casually, in a very human way—like a small child speaks to her father.

Our best days are those when we stay connected with God throughout the day.

Point to Ponder: God is always at my side to help me make the best decisions.

Verse to Live: "Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances." (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18). Question to Consider: What are you most grateful for today? Prayer: Jesus, thank you for being at my side even when I forget you are there.

Catholic Social Teaching

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

We are a Eucharistic people and today's solemnity celebrates this great gift we have been given - to share in the very Body and Blood of Christ. As thankful sharers in this Eucharistic feast we are called to give witness to our gratitude by becoming nourishment for others. We commit ourselves to being broken open and poured out for others as Jesus has done for us. What sacrifice are we willing to make for others in gratitude for the sacrifice Christ made for us?

La Solemnidad del Bendito Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

Somos gente Eucarística y la solemnidad de hoy celebra este gran regalo que se nos ha dado – Compartir del mismo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. Al compartir agradecidos, del festín Eucarístico somos llamados a dar testimonio de nuestra gratitud al convertirnos en nutriente para otros. Nos comprometemos a ser rotos y abiertos y a derramarnos por otros tal como Jesús ha hecho por nosotros ¿Qué sacrificio estamos dispuestos a hacer por los otros en gratitud por el sacrificio que Cristo hizo por nosotros?
