PRAYER during the coronavirus pandemic

Mary, Help of Christians, we fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son, as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother, and again for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of God's holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted, we ask to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind. Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick, and cause of our joy. Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen

Due to the continued rise in COVID -19 cases face coverings and social distancing continue to be required and will be enforced upon entering the church for all services and the parish office.

Beginning Monday, July 6th, a body temperature check will be taken before conducting business in the Parish Office. We also ask that proper use of face coverings (should cover the entire nose and mouth) and hand sanitation be followed.

Debido al continuo incremento en casos del COVID -19, máscaras faciales y el distanciamiento social continúan siendo requerido y se aplicará al ingresar a la iglesia para todos los servicios y la oficina parroquial. A partir del Lunes - 6 de julio, se tomará la temperatura corporal antes de hacer negocios en la Oficina Parroquial. También pedimos que se siga el uso adecuado de máscaras faciales (debe cubrir toda la nariz y la boca) y el saneamiento de manos.

UNDERSTANDING OUR LEGITIMATE NEEDS

Our legitimate needs are best understood in relation to each of the four aspects of the human person - physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual. These needs exist not only in these different areas, but also on different levels.

There are some things we need simply to survive. We call these primary needs, and this category includes the fundamentals that are necessary to sustain human life. Examples of primary needs would be food to eat, water to drink, and air to breathe. Without these primary legitimate needs, our lives would very quickly be brought to a grinding halt. Our primary needs are fundamental to our existence. We need them just to survive. But this is not about surviving, and neither is life. This is about thriving, about becoming the-best-version-of-ourselves.

Our secondary needs are not critical to our survival. We can survive without them for years in many cases. But they are essential if we are going to thrive in any (or all) of the four aspects of our lives. When our secondary needs are being fulfilled, we begin to blossom and bloom as human beings. The satisfaction of our secondary needs allows us to achieve and maintain optimum health and well-being. Among them would be needs such as regular exercise, a balanced diet, and healthy relationships.

Everyday we attend to our primary needs - those things necessary merely to sustain our existence. In many cases we do this without even thinking about it. You don't have to remind yourself to breathe, you just breathe. You have made a habit of breathing. You do it now by instinct. Similarly, you eat and drink several times a day. Eating and drinking have also become a habit for you. You are in a habit of surviving. You take care of your primary needs, because you have to.

On the other hand, we often neglect our secondary needs, either because we are too busy or too lazy or we simply don't consider them urgent. The question is, are you satisfied being a survivor, or are you ready to get into the habit of thriving? Think for a moment about each of the four areas. Which are you thriving in and which are you just surviving in? Our secondary needs are the key to thriving. They may not seem urgent in light of the 105 things you have on your to do list today, but they are probably more important than anything on that list.

The first step in our quest is to define our legitimate needs. Second step is to create a lifestyle that fulfills those legitimate needs. We all have legitimate needs. The fulfillment of those needs is one of the very practical ways we can learn to embrace our essential purpose. If we are wise we can seek their counsel, our legitimate needs will advise us what is necessary to maintain health of body, heart, mind and spirit.

Catholic Social Teaching

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time: Jesus entrusted the keys of the Kingdom to Peter, who represents the whole Church – all of us. What are those keys? In Matthew's Gospel they are the Beatitudes. This means that all of us and each of us are called to be poor in spirit and meek, we are to hunger and thirst for righteousness; we are to show mercy and be peacemakers, we will mourn, and we will experience persecution. We are called to love as God loves – without counting the cost and without exception. How will you witness to God's love this week? To whom are you called to show love?

21o. Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: Jesús confió las llaves del Reino a Pedro, quien representa a toda la iglesia—todos nosotros ¿Qué son esas llaves? En el Evangelio de Mateo son las Bienaventuranzas. Esto significa que todos y cada uno de nosotros estamos llamados a ser pobres y mansos de espíritu; tenemos hambre y sed de justicia; debemos mostrar misericordia y crear paz; nos lamentaremos y experimentaremos persecución. Estamos llamados a amar como Dios nos ama--- sin contar lo que cueste y sin excepción ¿Cómo será usted testigo del amor de Dios esta semana? ¿Hacia quién está usted llamado a demostrar amor?
