First Saturday Holy Hour Saturday, Mar. 5 at 8:30 A.M.
Our Lady of Fatima requests we:
1) go to confession,
2) receive Holy Communion,
3) Pray a 5-decade Rosary,
4) Spend 15 minutes with her while meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary, with the purpose of making reparation to her Immaculate Heart.

"When people say the Rosary together, it is far more formidable to the devil, than one said privately. Because in this public prayer, it is an army that is attacking him. He can often overcome the prayer of an individual, but if this prayer is joined to other Christians, the devil has much more trouble in getting the best of it."
- St Louis de Montfort.

Chapter 3 - Vainglory is an ordinate love of self

Vainglory is an expression of envy and jealousy and, therefore, an obstacle to brotherly love. Vainglory is an inordinate regard of self. It is self-conceit, the overestimation of one's power - social position, learning or talent, or skill or ability. Self-love is so strong a tendency that you may be carried away by it to the extent of embittering your life and, consequently, rendering yourself truly miserable.

St. Paul considers vainglory an obstacle to brotherly love. "Love is not arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way." Anyone who permits himself to be governed by vainglory easily arouses resentment in others. Anyone who fails to impress others by his own worthless pomp easily becomes victims of envy himself.

Try to see how vainglory tends to belittle the good you do possess; how it tends to make you untrue, unhappy, and ridiculous in the eyes of others; how it spoils your character. You have received great favors and unmerited blessings from God. Of yourself, you are and have nothing, except sin. Whatever is good in you is really due to the working of grace in your soul. Therefore, humility and gratitude should be natural to you.

Christ did not seek the esteem and praise of men. He sought only His Father's honor. By His way of life, He evoked the sharp criticism and bitter hatred of His own nation. Only true humility could stand that test of virtue. St. Paul says, "Christ did not please Himself, but, as it is written, 'The reproaches of those who reproached Thee fell upon me.' "

Rather than pursue the esteem and recognition of men, seek the esteem of Christ through humble use of the talents He has given you. You will really want that esteem in the hour of your death. The psalmists says, "Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to Thy name give glory."

Catholic Social Teaching

Eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time: Lent begins this week on Ash Wednesday. May this season of preparation help us to clearly see the work of God in our lives. May we produce goodness from the stores of goodness in our hearts as we hear in today's Gospel.

Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: La Cuaresma comienza esta semana el Miércoles de Ceniza. Que esta temporada de preparación nos ayude a ver claramente las obras de Dios en nuestras vidas. Que produzcamos la bondad desde el almacén de bondad en nuestros corazones tal como escuchamos en el Evangelio de hoy.
